The Villa House is an ultra-luxurious lodging space that welcomes you with its large lounging and living room area, its warm wood, vaulted ceilings, grand marble fireplace, curving loft area, large family-sized kitchen, and exquisite Koa wood staircase. In summary, the Villa features a large bathtub, 3 showers, 2.5 bathrooms, a sound system, a fully-equipped kitchen, a large table for meals, and an outdoor hot tub with an expansive view of a 150' waterfall, Maui's dormant volcano and 30 miles of untouched Hawaiian coastline all the way to Hana.

YOGA ROOM

957 sq.ft.

Spanning an impressive 957 square feet, this space caters to both small or large group settings, and can hold up to 20 people doing floor Yoga and 50 to 60 people in a circle or lecture-style format. Equipped with state-of-the-art amenities, including a projector, sound system, yoga mats, straps, blocks, backjacks, and zafus, it effortlessly accommodates the diverse needs of its users.

KITCHEN & DINING

1500 sq.ft.

Hale Akua's community kitchen and dining room offer a communal culinary experience for group retreats. We offer a fully equipped kitchen for caterers to prep meals and set up meals in the dining areas. Adjacent to the pool, a patio provides al fresco dining with views of lush gardens. Guests can savor farm-to-table meals in this serene setting, fostering connections and nourishing both body and soul.

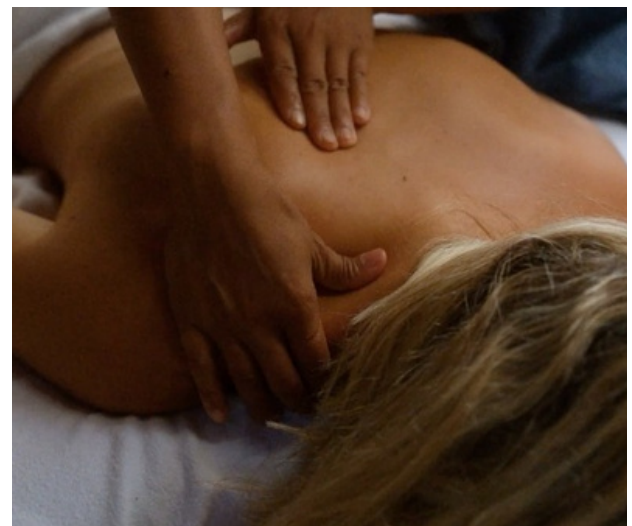

POOL & HOT TUB

Complimentary for in-house guests.

Our 60-foot solar-heated saltwater swimming pool is a wonderful way to feel refreshed and renewed. Because of lower chlorine levels, our saltwater pool is gentler on the eyes and skin and produces softer-feeling water. Additionally, in-house guests can relax in our hot tub overlooking thirty miles of untouched Hawaiian coastline. Next to our hot tub is our infra-red sauna to help you heal and rejuvenate.

MASSAGE TEMPLE

90sq.ft.

The Massage Temple is a sanctuary of tranquility, featuring exquisite wood craftsmanship throughout. The walls & floors are all meticulously crafted from warm, sustainable wood, creating a nurturing and serene environment. These rooms harmonize nature's essence with therapeutic massages, providing a deeply soothing and grounding experience for guests.
